

Wednesday June 19th, 2024

See our Welcome Table. There is a book exchange. Free Toys for your Pets. Lost and Found and free Pot Luck Trays. Tomorrow is the last morning to get fresh homemade doughnuts.

Ask Mary Bruun about this cow Family. Ask the Hopkins about OshKosh.

Crafting with T-Shirts

Chair Yoga

Announcements:

1. Round dancers there will be Pre-Rounds tonight at 6:30 and Tomorrow at 6:30PM. Please, Join us.
2. A dance and workshop this afternoon at 2PM
3. Three couples are celebrating their anniversary this month: Bob and Cinda Asp (014), Mike and Michelle Seurer (010) and David and Sharon Lust (031)
4. Tonight, we will be sharing the Expo Center the Milwaukee Symphony, as part of the Buttermilk Concert Series, is playing. It is free!!!
5. On a sad note: We received word that Ted Hughes, a caller and member of Chapter 018 in Florida passed away June 17th,2024. In our welcome edition we had mentioned that he was taken off the ventilator, was breathing on his own and improving.
6. Bars for your badges will again be sold at the dance tonight. For those who were not able to buy them yesterday. There will also be tools available to help attach them to your badge.
7. Pot Luck again tonight.
8. The Snooper is being posted on the NSDCA Website. In most cases the email and online versions will have more pictures than the printed version.
9. Some Banners in the Parade of Chapters.

Last

night's dance was fantastic!!! 5 and sometimes 6 squares.
There was also a presentation of Quilts of Valor for our Veterans.

Game on Tuesday was Bean Bag Toss. Winners will be announced on Thursday at the meeting.

Tuesday Night Dance (Squares & Rounds)

The Quilts of Valor Foundation awarded Quilts to these six Veterans: Edward Berridge-Army (014); Neal Chartier-Marine (002); Ernest Ellis-Navy (000); Thomas Herscha-Marine(128); Thomas Nickel-Army (031); Paul Schwarts-Navy (001)

One more quilt

Another quilt was to be presented to Bruce Buckbee-Air Force (061) but he was unable to attend. Again, I thank everyone who helped contribute News for this Snooper.